LETTER FROM THE ARCHDEACON

Jesus says to his first disciples and, through them, he says also to us: Follow me.

Much is therefore made in the life of the church about our need to dedicate ourselves to doing just that; to following the way of the cross, to living a life of self-offering as we seek to obey the first commandment – to love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.

We are not as good, perhaps, at applying the second commandment correctly – to love your neighbour as yourself. This second commandment encourages us to care for others as we care for ourselves, rather than instead of caring for ourselves. In our enthusiasm to obey the first commandment, we don't always get the balance of the second commandment right, which was recently summarised for me as a calling to live responsibly. This seems to tie in with what the second century missionary Bishop Irenaeus is often quoted as saying: The glory of God is a human being fully alive.

I am reminded of the oxygen masks that sit above our seats on aeroplanes, and which we hope never to have to use. If the plane experiences difficulty and we do have to use those masks, then the instructions are clear – put on your own mask before seeking to help others to put on theirs. No doubt the same applies to life-vests at sea and in many other similar circumstances. We cannot take proper care of others if we do not first take proper care of ourselves.

This is not an invitation to self-indulgence, but to recognise that we each have needs which, if appropriately met, will enable us to become the people we are called to be, and thus to be more fully able to serve God and others. Many aspects of our lives may, indeed, require pruning in some way, rather than indulging, if we are to bear much fruit.

Sadly, self-loathing has become a significant problem for many today, and as a church we are surely called to reach out in generous affirmation – to proclaim that every living person is a unique child of God, loved by their creator, invited into a personal relationship with their redeemer, offered a life in the Spirit whose fruit includes love, joy and peace.

As we seek to grow in that life and to bear that fruit – taking proper care of ourselves – we can hope to become more sensitive to what it is that we are being called to do in the service of others. Loving ourselves aright equips us to love others more fully.

May we therefore encourage one another afresh to observe the twin aspects of the commandment to love your neighbour as yourself – that they and we may become more fully alive, and may become more fully the people we are all called to be.

EVENING SERVICE OF THE WORD

Not able to come to church on Sunday? Why not try the Evening Service of The Word? Held once a month on Tuesday evening (following the third Sunday of the month) at 6.30pm at St. Mary's Badby, this friendly, peaceful service lasts no longer than 25 minutes. Led in turn by some of those who attend, there is always a brief talk about somebody inspirational such as Thomas Cranmer, Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Caroline Chisholm. All welcome! Forward ESOW dates are October 23 and November 20..

BADBY AND DISTRICT FILM SOCIETY

The films to be screened this month are:

Sat 6th Oct Buzet's THE PEARL FISHERS (2017)
Our Supper at the Opera series brings you this exotic masterpiece, set in Sri Lanka, with its unforgettable "Great Duet": an "ardent, soaring performance." Penny Woolcock's vivid film version of Met Opera's stage production stars Diana Damrau, Matthew Polenzani & Mariusz Kwiecien (180 mins).

Thu 25th Oct DEATH OF STALIN (2017)
Political satire depicting the power struggle following the death of Soviet revolutionary & politician Joseph Stalin in 1953. Directed & co-written by Armando Iannucci, creator of The Thick of It and In the Loop. Stars Simon Russell Beale, Michael Palin & many others. "Iannucci [is] in riotous form, bringing his scabrous political humour to bear on a chapter in history with painfully timely parallels." Contains some violent scenes and strong language (102 mins).

Fri 26th Oct DARKEST HOUR (2017)
Director Joe Wright's account of Winston Churchill's early days as Prime Minister, as Nazi Germany swept across Europe threatening to invade and defeat the UK in WW II. Kristin Scott Thomas plays Churchill's wife, Clementine, but Gary Oldman stars in "the best performance of his career," winning "Best Actor" BAFTA & Oscar awards. "Unfolding with the clockwork precision of a Broadway play... it's a deliciously unsubtle testament to the power of words and their infinite capacity to inspire" (125 mins).

If you are interested in finding out more about the Society and its forthcoming programme, please get in touch with Karen Brown on 312158.

SING-A-LONG-A-SUE

For those who enjoy a bit of a sing song, Revd Sue's regular "Sing-a-long-a-Sue" returns on Wednesdays, 26th Sept, 10th & 24th Oct at 7.30pm in Newnham Church. A small but regular group have already learnt a number of worship songs, including Taize, African and Caribbean. This is a Benefice initiative so please come along, it really is good fun.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Our Annual Show as part of the Badby Fayre on Sunday 2nd September was a great success. Entries were up on last year, especially in the floral arranging classes. We had to put up additional photographic boards to have enough room to show all the entries and the baking was very impressive. Thanks to everyone who entered the Show and congratulations to everyone who won a certificate or cup for their efforts. We hope to be able to run the Show again next year.

The last two events in this year's calendar are our AGM on Friday 16th November, with our speaker Andrew Mikołajski, a gardening speaker, author and lecturer and finally our Christmas Crafts Evening on Friday 14th December.

As of the end of the year, the Society needs to find a new Chairperson and Secretary, otherwise we will not exist next year. If you feel you may be interested in taking on one of these rewarding positions please contact Zelda Shapter on 872118 or zelda@peteshapter.co.uk.

HARVEST

Our Harvest Festival Service this year is on Sunday 14th October at 6.00pm followed by our traditional finger buffet. The church will be decorated on the Saturday morning, when gifts of produce and flowers will be gratefully received

PATRONAL FESTIVAL

On Sunday 30th September at 10.00am we shall be celebrating St Michael and All Angels with a family Benefice service of Holy Communion. Please encourage family and friends, young and old to come along. Refreshments will be available after the service

ROOF THEFT

Unfortunately due to holidays, church news was omitted from the September edition of the Link, so by now all will be aware that lead has been stolen from the whole of the chancel roof. A neighbour heard disturbances and reported them to the police, but they were unable to respond. A temporary cover has been placed on the entire Chancel roof to prevent rain water damage, and all vulnerable furnishings/ornaments have been covered or moved. At a time of adversity it is wonderful to acknowledge the many villagers who so readily offered support and encouragement especially Martyn, Gary, Justin, James and Harry.

PAELLA & PARACHUTES PARTY and BBQ

What an amazing event this turned out to be! Over 100 people had a very enjoyable afternoon, eating, drinking, and generally socialising with family and village friends. A HUGE THANK YOU to all those who supported us in any way - we raised an astonishing £1,920. For those who were hoping to visit the Church Tower but were unable to do so because of sheer numbers please let us know your name and telephone number and we will arrange personally supervised tours.

PRIZE "ROOF REPAIR FUND" BINGO

On Friday 5th October our Prize Bingo takes place in the Village Hall in aid of our "Roof Repair Fund". Doors open as usual at 6.30pm, with eyes down at 7.00pm. This is very much a fun event for all the family, so please come along and enjoy yourselves. Prize donations would be very much appreciated - please contact either Churchwarden or any church member.

CHURCH ROOF REPAIR FUND

I am pleased to report that we have to date received a healthy total of £7,600 in donations towards our roof repairs. This includes a total of £1,900 from three local Freemasons Lodges from Daventry which were initiated by Malcolm Payne of Crabtree Farm and are from funds which had been set aside to assist in community matters.

We have also benefitted from our Paella, BBQ and Parachutes Party in the sum of £1,920.

So we have a wonderful boost towards our aim of raising £30,000 and the repair of our roof, although we still have a long way to go.

Our sincere thanks to all who have donated or helped so far in any way towards this fund, we really do appreciate your help.
